

June – Character Embarking on a Journey

Of course a LOT of books contain a character on a journey of some sort! Here is a mixture of classic and modern tales, some funny, some sad, some true accounts, some with an actual adventurous journey, and others which tell of a family saga told over generations.

May you always find JOY in the Journey!

Here are a few recommendations:

The Alchemist – by Paul Coelho

American Gods – by Neil Gaiman

The Count of Monte Cristo – by Alexandre Dumas

Cutting for Stone - by Abraham Verghese

David Copperfield – by Charles Dickens

The Grapes of Wrath – by John Steinbeck

The Hike – by Drew Magary

The Hobbit – by J.R.R. Tolkien

In the Heart of the Sea – by Nathaniel Philbrick

Into Thin Air – by Jon Krakauer

Jane Eyre – by Charlotte Bronte

The Lake House – by Kate Morton

The Long Walk – by Slavomir Rawicz

News of the World – by Paulette Jiles

The Odyssey – by Homer

The 100-Year-Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Disappeared – by Jonas Jonasson

The Outlander – by Diana Gabaldon

The Princess Bride – by William Goldman

The Salt Path – by Raynor Winn

Shantaram – by Gregory David Roberts

The Signature of All Things – by Elizabeth Gilbert

Their Eyes Were Watching God – by Zora Neale Hurston

True Grit – by Charles Portis

The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry – by Rachel Joyce

Where'd You Go Bernadette – by Maria Semple

Wild – by Cheryl Strayed