

Transparency Stars

The Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts awards the City of Sachse
the Public Pensions Star

for exemplary efforts in creating financial transparency around public pension plans. The Transparency Stars program recognizes local governments across Texas that are striving to meet a high standard for financial transparency online. These efforts provide citizens with clear, consistent information about public spending in user-friendly formats.

September 1, 2021

